

Name :

Class :

Instruction: Choose the correct verb that agrees with the subject. Encircle your answer.

- The ice cream vendor (ring, rings) his bell to attract children.
- Street food stalls (serve, serves) delicious snacks at night markets.
- A sari-sari store (sell, sells) soft drinks and instant noodles.
- The line for fish balls (get, gets) longer in the evening.
- Everyone (enjoy, enjoys) eating taho in the morning.
- The group of customers (wait, waits) in line for fresh lumpia.
- The vendors at the market (call, calls) out to customers.
- Some of the store owners (restock, restocks) their shelves every morning.
- The aroma of grilled isaw (fill, fills) the streets at night.
- Nobody (like, likes) stale street food.
- The banana cue vendor (cook, cooks) fresh banana cue every afternoon.
- The vendors and customers (gather, gathers) at the night market.
- Somebody (buy, buys) street food after work every day.
- The crowd (cheer, cheers) when the sorbetes cart arrives.
- Few customers (complain, complains) about the price of street food because it is affordable.
- Neither the store owner nor the vendors (want, wants) to increase prices.
- Each customer (choose, chooses) their favorite street food.
- The scent of freshly baked bibingka (drift, drifts) through the air.
- The children playing near the food stalls (run, runs) to buy snacks.
- Many of the street vendors (start, starts) selling early in the morning.